

Endurance seminar in Abu Dhabi

Date: January 18, 2010

The Emirates Equestrian Federation will be holding an endurance seminar-cum-course for international judges and veterinarians in Abu Dhabi from February 7 to 9, 2011, at the Abu Dhabi Equestrian Club premises.

The course is open to all National Federations and meant for Level 1 and Level 2 judges and veterinarians, and those who are willing to progress to the next level. A written examination for both levels will be held on the second day of the seminar and the successful candidates will be allowed to officiate in FEI rides.

The course will be held ahead of the HH The President of the UAE Endurance Cup in Abu Dhabi on February 12, 2011.

Dr. Hallvard Sommereth, Head of Veterinary department, EEF and Mr. Ian Williams, Director of Non-Olympics Sports department, FEI and FEI Endurance Judge, will be coordinating the course.

A fee of Dh 500 will be charged for the course and those interested can contact the Veterinary Department of the Federation on (9712) 6661800, fax (9712) 6661787, email shama@equafed.ae/hallvard@equafed.ae.

The deadline for applications is February 3, 2011.
